

St. John's College, Anchal
Minority Cell Report 2018-2019

Date: March 25, 2019

During the meeting held on July 25, 2018, the Minority Cell of the college discussed strategies to support minority students. One key focus was motivating minority students to apply for scholarships. The cell emphasized the importance of financial assistance and provided guidance on the application process. Additionally, as part of the induction program for first-year students, the Minority Cell raised awareness about available scholarships and highlighted the existence of the grievance cell specifically constituted to address the concerns of minority students within the college. This initiative aimed to ensure that all minority students were aware of the support mechanisms in place to assist them throughout their academic journey.

The following are the teachers in charge of the Cell:
